ROUMANIA READY TO MOBILIZE ARMY

Will Invade Bulgaria Within 48 Hours Unless Country Yields.

A SERIOUS SITUATION.

No Movement Made in London by Turks or Greek Allies to Reopen Peace Negotiations.

Paris, Jan. 10.—It was learned from semi-official sources here today that Roumania formally had served notice on the great powers that she would mobilize an army and invade Bulgaria within 48 hours unless the Bulgars gave way to Roumania's territorial demands.

Constantinople, Jan. 10.—The Turkish troops along the Chatalja lines today were in a state of insubordination. They threatened to mutiny and sent a manifesto to the Porte, demanding that the government immediately withdraw from the London conference and renew the war. The soldiers threatened to force the sultan to abdicate if fighting were not resumed.

London, Jan. 10.—When the ambassadors of the great powers resumed their conversations today at the foreign office, they faced a serious situation. The diplomats themselves still were without authority from their governments to take formal action committing the powers to any program.

Up to noon neither the Turks nor the allies had made any move to request the re-opening of the peace negotiations. Rechid Pasha and Ozman Niazami Pasha, the Ottoman delegates, both declared that they had no intention of requesting further meetings. It was up to the allies, they said.

Dr. S. Danieff, chief of the Bulgarians, and M. Venizelos, the Greek premier, who have generally acted as spokesman for the Balkan delegates, said that they would not ask further parly, saying it was up to Turkey.

It was said here that the Balkan envoys, if Turkey made no conciliatory mode today, would call a meeting of the conference tomorrow for the purpose of breaking off negotiatins formally and declaring a resumption of the war. From Constantionple came a report that the Porte had declared that unless the allies asked for further negotiations by tomorrow the Turkish plenipotentiaries would be ordered to quit London forthwith.

Should Turkey withdraw her peace delegate from London tomorrow, the Balkan war would be renewed without further notice, Dr. Daneff, the Bulgarian chief envoy said tocay.

"If the Turks withdraw after the allies call another meeting of peace conference tomorrow," said Dr. Daneff, "Bulgaria will end the armistice on the fourth day thereafter and Bulgarian troops encamped on the Chatalja lines immediately will attack the Turks without further notice."

Government Inaugurated.

Hartford, Conn., Jan. 9.—With the rising of the General Assembly today for the 1913 session Governor Simeon E. Baldwin was inaugurated and began serving his second term. For the first time since 1897 there was a Democratic Governor and Senate. The House has a Republican majority of but two which means the constant attendance of the party's members if it wishes to control the business of that branch.

A Democratic governor and senate means a filling of all state commissions with Democrats, something which the Governor could not do two years ago not only because of a Republican senate but because the terms of many of the commissioners did not expire until this year.

The most drastic recommendation in the Governor's message calls for the abolishment of the six state officers and their combination with the commission remaining. He recommends the election of the President and the United States Senators by popular vote; the extension of municipal suffrage to women owning taxable property and the adoption of a workman's compensation act.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION MEETS.

Re-elect Old Officers and Declare Substantial Dividend.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the German Co-Operative Building Association of Alexandria, one of the city's strongest financial institutions, which was held last night the following officers were elected: Isaac Eichberg, president, Justus Schneider, secretary and treasurer; Phillip M. Bradshaw and John D. Normoyle, trustees; Thomas Hoy and P. F. Gorman, directors for three years, William H. Hellmuth, director for one year, Douglass Stuart, attorney, all of the officers have served the association for many years with the exception of Mr. Hellmuth, who succeeds the late John T. Nalls.

The board of directors declared the following dividend: For the fifth series, $8 per share; for the sixth series $5.50 per share; for the seventh series $4 per share; for the 8th series $2 per share; for the 9th series 50 cents per share. The affairs of the association were found to be in a very flourishing condition.

MORE SEATS ON SALE.

Entire Lower Floor of Opera House to Be Reserved for the "Mikado."

Pretty music and comical situations with a tinge of near tragedy will be some of the features of the opera which will be sung by Sharps and Flats at the Opera House next Wednesday and Thursday nights. The orchestra has been carefully selected part of which will be composed of members of the Marine Band, whose orchestral work is always of the highest standard. Fortunate indeed, has the selection of Mrs. Frederick P. Russell to preside at the piano, proven as by her unfailing attendance at every rehearsal has it become possible to attain the degree of efficiency that the organization now enjoys, which it is believed, will be manifested at the coming performance. With such an array of instrumental talent, perfect support for the company is assured.

Anticipating a very heavy sale of reserved seats, the management has reserved the entire lower floor and a special chart has been prepared showing the location of seats familiarly known as those back of the railing and is now ready for inspection. Comfortable orchestra chairs have been substituted for the old style one formerly located in this section of the house and the public is assured that every detail has been carefully attended to which will be essential to their enjoyment of the performance.

SOLONS APPEAL.

More Than 80 Per Cent. Want Allen Sentence Commuted.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 10.—Pleading new evidence, counsel for Floyd and Claude Allen, Hillsville mountaineers, father and son, condemned to die for their part in the murders in Judge Massie's courtroom last March, today appealed to the State Supreme Court for re-opening of their cases. Petitions from men and women all over the state, weighing forty pounds, were presented with the briefs.

The Allens' counsel claim to have support in the form of affidavits for their contention that the court officers conspired to railroad Floyd Allen to jail before Judge Massie and began the courtroom fusillade.

Roanoke, Va., Jan. 10.—It is stated here on reliable authority that more than 50 per cent. of the members of the Virginia Legislature have written personal letters to Governor Mann requesting commutation of the sentences of Floyd and Claude Allen to life imprisonment. It is believed that fully eighty per cent. of the Virginia solons have interested themselves in the fate of the two men.

From copies of letters received here and from letters from the Virginia lawmakers, they have, founded their requests largely on the facts that in the later cases the Commonwealth abandoned the conspiracy charge and that it had been shown that interested parties had fabricated evidence against the Allens in order to secure their conviction.

Medal For Edison.

New York, Jan. 10.—Thomas A. Edison who notified today that the new Rathaneau Medal for the best device or process in the electrical industry for safeguarding industrial life and health had been awarded him by the American Museum of Safety.

GENERAL FIGHT RESULT OF STRIKE

One Man Slashed With Razor ,Another Attacked With Crowbar.

WOMAN LED PICKETS.

Both Sides are Determined and Further Trouble Expected Today—Clothing Trade Paralyzed.

New York, Jan. 10.—Union pickets and striking garment workers joined forces today in a free-for-all fight with strike breakers, private detective guard and a couple of New York policemen on Lafayette street. As a result one picket's neck was slashed with a razor; another's head was laid open with an iron bar and the majority of both parties were nursing various business before final order was restored.

The pickets led by a woman were marching up and down in the clothing district persuading strike-breakers to join them. One party of 25 going into the building at 187 Lafayette street refused to listen to the pleas. In a few minutes a general fight was in progress in which iron bars, stones, and finally the razor were used.

The man not seriously hurt was Patrick Cartone a picket whose neck was laid open by the razor.

The temper of both sides was decidedly strained today and further trouble was believed certain.

Complete paralysis of the clothing trade in greater New York was threatened today, when the leaders of the waists and dress maker's unions—the last of the garment worker's to remain at their posts—declared the vote of their workers had been taken and that their entire body, numbering between 30,000 and 40,000 would walk out Monday mrning.

Double Tragedy.

Newark, N. J., Jan. 10.—While his six year old son Orman and his three-year-old daughter Hazel, slept in the room, Edward Burke, 28, a special policeman shot and killed his wife in their home here today. He then fired a bullet into his own brain. Both were dead and the children were crying when Policeman Thomas broke down the door and entered the house. Jealousy was said to be the cause of the tragedy.

Wilson's Visit to Chicago.

Chicago, Jan. 10.—A leisurely program is outlined for President-elect Wilson, who will be the guest of this city from 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon until noon Sunday. He will deliver only one speech tomorrow night. That will be before the Commercial Club, whose invitation he accepted before his election.

The subject of Governor Wilson's address will be "The Future Business of the Country."

Unusual precautions to guard the President-elect are being taken by secrtct service operatives and Chicago police. He will be met at the station by a large police guard, which will stay with him until he leaves.

When he arrives tomorrow evening, Governor Wilson will be taken to the home of David B. Jones, where he will remain until he goes to the banquet. He will spend the night at the Jones residence.

After Bandits.

Chicago, Ill., Jan. 10.—From sundown last night to sunrise today four automobiles carrying heavily armed, desperate men threaded the boulevard of Chicago. In four of them were the pick of the city's police force. In the fifth were the two automobile bandits. And for some reason these two parties never met.

The four police "dreadnaughts" were scouring the haunts of the outlaws somewhere in the suburbs early in the evening when the other automobile leisurely drove up to a jewelry store half a block from a police station. Two men smashed the window in the store, took jewelry valued at $1,000 and drove off.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Death as a punishment for opium smoking was meted out today to a woman of Shanghai, China, who persisted in the use of the drug despite the stringent manifesto issued by the government on Christmas day prohibiting the people from indulging in the habit. By order of the governor of the province the woman was taken to a public place and executed by shooting in the presence of a large crowd of spectators.

The naval repair ship Panther, about which alarming reports have been published ever since the storm of last week, was sighted off Guaantanomo, Cuba, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She did not touch at the naval station at Guantanamo, but continued on her course to the Gulf of Guayacabo, where the vessels of the Atlantic fleet will soon engage in target practice.

Further outbreaks occurred Wednesday night in the strike zone, in West Virginia and Governor Glasscock was called upon for aid in preserving order by property owners in the strike district. The complaints were referred to county officers, who have gone to the scene of the trouble. At an old opening of one of the mines of the Standard Splint and Gas Coal Company at Standard fire was started in the mine and the entire property is endangered. At Holly Grove, about 100 shots were fired at a coal train which pulled into the yards. None of the crew was struck, and it is believed the strikers were trying to induce the railroad men to refuse to haul coal from the mines where the strike is on.

Ten men are known to have been killed and sixteen severely injured when the Tombigbee river steamer James T. Saples was wrecked by a boiler explosion yesterday afternoon while the boat was tied up at Bladon Springs, Ala. After the explosion the boat sank up to the cabin, and then turned over on its side.

The Ohio river reached a stage slightly under 44 feet last night and Wheeling, W. Va., is in the midst of its most disastrous flood, with the exception of the visitations of 1884 and 1907. Last night the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad brought in its last passenger train from the East. The train plowed through 18 inches of water for a quarter of a mile before reaching the station. In some sections of the city the natural gas supply is cut off and much suffering caused. A majority of the iron and steel mills have been forced to suspend by the high water, and upward of 10,000 men are idle. The loss in wages thus will run well into the hundreds of thousands of dollars.

VIRGINIA MEADES.

One Family of Many Who Can Trace To Kingly Origin.

London, Jan. 10.—Dr. David Starr Jordan's discovery of royal pedigrees for American business magnates has excited much interest in English genealogists.

The marquis of Ruvigny, one of the most eminent European authorities on genealogy laughed heartily when your correspondent called to get his opinion He said:

"Dr. Jordan is talking errant nonsense if he says William the Conqueror was responsible for having founded only one American family and Edward I. another. Thousands of Americans are descended from them.

"To say that William the Conqueror is responsible for only one American family is nonsense. Take only one case, Susanna, the eldest daughter and co-heir of Sir Richard Everard, the governor of North Carolina, in 1724, married David Meade, of Nansemond county, Va., who was a planter. They had six children, all leaving issue. The eldest of these again had six children, among whom were several daughters, who married into American families.

"Therefore, from this one marriage can be traced scores of American families today. Sir Richard Everard's descent from George, duke of Clarence who was drowned in a butt of Malmsley wine, is known."

Geneva, Jan. 10.—The Alpine boy who carried the $25,000 diamond necklace in his pocket for a plaything, not knowing its value, today was playing with $100, the reward paid by Baroness de Forest for the return of her jewels.

CITY OF WHEELING IS FLOOD BOUND

Eight Thousand Families Marooned in Homes—Much Suffering.

WOMAN IS DROWNED.

Many People Driven Into Second Stories of Their Homes—Every Boats Pressed Into Service.

Wheeling, W. Va., Jan. 10.—Wheeling is flood-bound. The crest of the flood which passed Pittsburgh last night reached here early today, marooned, 8,000, families in their rooms, stopped all street car and railroad traffic, cut off the city's gas supply and caused much suffering and property damage.

One woman is known to have been drowned and another, missing, is believed lost.

For 200 miles up and down the Ohio river, flood conditions exist, tying up traffic and industrial plants and causing much loss and suffering.

Mrs. James McMann, lighthouse tender, lost her life in the flood late last night, while trying to cross a trestle over the swollen river. Mrs. Lizzie Balke, 60, is missing and is believed to have been drowned.

Every available boat in the town was pressed into service today to free residents of the island districts from their homes. The Island, where 8,000 lives was completely submerged, and in most homes the families had been driven into the second stories.

Columbus, O., Jan. 10.—The Medical and hospital corps of the Ohio National Guard were held in readiness today to rush to the relief of Ohio river flood sufferers.

Reports received at the adjutant general's office today were that a rise in temperature had caused further swelling of the river waters and increased the flood danger.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Jan. 10.—With the river stage rapidly lowering to normal today, Pittsburg's loss from the flood is estimated at a million dollars. Between 30,000 and 35,000 men, women were thrown out of work by the flooding of mills and factories in low-lying sections.

William McDaniels, of McKees Rocks was the only person drowned in the flood.

Count Wounded in Duel.

Count Stephan Tisza, president of the lower house of the Hungarian parliament, fought another duel yesterday and succeeded in wounding his man, Count Aladar Szechenyl. The weapons were sabers, and Count Szechenyl was wounded in the head. Count Tisza was not hurt.

The duel arose out of a declaration made in writing by County Szechenyl that it was through an error that he recently acknowledged Count Tisza's salute.

The latter promptly sent a challenge.

On January 2 Count Tisza and Count Michael Karolyi, a prominent member of the opposition fought a duel with sabers, the latter being very severely wounded. A third duel is scheduled for tomorrow between the president of the lower house and Count Aladar Zichy, an opposition deputy; while Deputy Polonyi, whom Count Tisza said he would not recognize in the street, sent a challenge to Count Tisza yesterday.

Massachusetts Senatorship.

Boston, Jan. 10.—There seemed little chance of settlement today when the republican legislative caucus, which for three days has been deadlocked, resumed its session. Supporters of John W. Weeks were enthusiastic over the tactical advantage of coming from behind and passing Rep. Samuel W. McCall, whose highest vote was on the fifth and eighth ballots, the total being 74 Weeks' high vote was 76, reached on the sixteenth ballot.

Threatened Beer War.

Berlin, Germany, Jan. 10.—Berlin today was threatened with a beer war. The municipality is about to place a tax on all beer brewed outside of the city proper and the new law will be interpreted as taxing the products of firms established in the suburbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Bloch arrived at Bremen December 24th, and on the following day reached the home of Mrs. Bloch's parents, at Rust, Germany. In her letter Mrs. Bloch speaks of the bad weather encountered at sea, and says the steamer which carried them (the North German Lloyd steamer Maine) lost her rudder in mid ocean and was compelled to make a stop for six hours while repairs were made, the steamer during that time drifting helplessly at the mercy of the waves.

STEAMER ALCAZA PASSES IN CAPES

Wireless Dispatches Deny That She Called For Assistance.

RECENT COLLISION

Steamer Indrakaula Still Anchored at Mouth of Rappahannock With Forward Hold Flooded.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 10.—The British steamer Alcazar, reported last night to be in danger off the Diamond Shoals Lightship, North Carolina, today passed the capes enroute to Norfolk, and under her own steam. Wireless dispatches from the vessel deny that she called for aid last night.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 10.—Members of the crew of the barge which today brought here part of the steamer Indrakaula's cargo, transferred from the battered British liner at sea, declared that those aboard the ship were anxious to appear before a federal board to show that they did all in their power to aid the crew of the Julia Luckenbach when that vessel collided with Indrakaula in Tangier Island Sound.

The Indrakaula is still anchored at the mouth of the Rappahannock river. The fact that additional wrecking tugs were hurriedly dispatched to her today gave rise to the report that the vessel was taking water alarmingly. It is known that her forward hold is flooded from the big hole where she struck the Julia Luckenbach. The agents for the Indrakaula's owners here said it might be several days before the steamer was brought into port.

Financier Sentenced.

New York, Jan. 10.—Joseph G. Robin, noted financier, who pleaded guilty to the theft of $27,000 from the Washington Savings Bank, was today sentenced by Justice Seabury to serve one year in the penitentiary in Blackwell's Island.

Robin was given clemency because he had aided the district attorney in securing the conviction of William J. Cummings, Joseph G. Rechman and former City Chamberlain Charles G. Hyde.

Tried to Kill Grandmother.

Philadelphia, Jan. 10.—Charged with having bound and gagged his grandmother, Mrs. Georgianna Comer, and then turned on the gas so as to end her life, George Cunningham was yesterday held in bail by Magistrate Grelis, for a further hearing today. Cunningham lives with his grandmother, who is 73 years old, and an aunt, Miss Comer, and it was declared he made the attack on the aged woman when she refused to supply him with money.

Young Cunningham, who is only 20 years old, denied that he bound or gagged his grandmother, but, according to the police, admitted that he turned on the gas so as to kill himself and that it was while trying to prevent him carrying out his intention that the aged woman was injured. Policeman Uhl said that he was called to the Comer house and found Mrs. Comer in hysterics and the place upset. Cunningham was married two months ago, but his wife left him, and since then he has been despondent.

Buried Hours in Coal.

Franklin Furnace, N. J., Jan. 9.—Buried to the shoulders in a mass of coal for five hours, during which he wore away portions of his fingers in his struggle to dig himself loose, was the experience of Jacob Grover, an employe of the New Jersey Zinc Company, last night. He was rescued by Constable Buckley and a man named Nestor.

Grover was at work on top of the company's coal chute, using a crowbar to prize frozen coal. He dropped the bar into the bin, and in trying to recover it, was drawn into the court until it almost covered him.

The accident happened yesterday afternoon, and it was not until 9 o'clock that Buckley and Nestor heard Grover struggling in the bin and succeeded in getting him out.

As was stated in the Gazette, the jury in the case of B. F. Board Motor Truck Company vs. the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, in the Circuit Court for the city yesterday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for $10,000.

The jury was out but fifteen minutes before reaching its verdict. After the verdict had been returned Attorney John M. It is however, expected that the defendant company will take the acse to the State Court of Appeals.

The two new dormitories will be located in front of the present building, one on each side, so that they will form three sides of a square. They will be of brick, three stories high, and will house about 130 boys. Master's rooms will be located on each floor. In one of the buildings will be located the hall of the Fairfax Literary Society and the present building used by that organization will be demolished.

As soon as the new buildings can be occupied the present buildings will be remodelled at a cost of $20,000. Blackford Hall, Liggett Hall, the Infirmary and the Master's residence will remain substantially as at present, the only exception being that Colonial porches will be added and the one story building in the north will be enlarged to harmonize with the Hoxton residence on the south.

The most important change will be made in main building which will be completely remodeled and enlarged.

The first floor, which now serves as the dining hall, with class rooms behind it, will be extended to the rear, greatly enlarging the dining room. The kitchen, which now lies between this building and the Blackford Hall (on the south), will be built behind the dining room.

On the second floor the chapel will be enlarged to avoid completely the present overcrowding. Back of the chapel will be one school room, with another directly overhead, on the third floor. Behind the two school rooms there will be about twelve new class rooms, including a well appointed physical laboratory.

The old fourth floor, at present used as a dormitory, will be removed, thus eliminating a constant source of danger from fire.

No provision has been made for a new gymnasium, which is greatly needed but the students hope that this can be added. The athletic fields will be moved slightly to the west and south to make room for one of the new dormitories.

F. H. Brooks, of Washington is the architect and the building committee is composed of Bishop Gravat, of West Virginia. J. Stewart Bryan, of Richmond, Col. Arthur Herbert, Julian T. Burke, George C. Stuart and Rev. P. P. Phillips.

SHOT AT NEGRO.

Mr. Oliver, a dairyman, who resides near the Episcopal Theological Seminary, caught a negro in his barn on Wednesday night and discharged a pistol at him. The darkey fled, not having been struck by the bullet. It is said that people in the vicinity of the Seminary are annoyed nightly by rail theives, who remove the same and use them for firewood.

The "Wizard" Triangle Mop in Two Styles

(Oil Treated and Black Chemically Treated.)

Both Mops are constructed alike and of the same material, the only difference is in the method of treatment and in color; both answer the same purpose.

The "Wizard" Triangle Mop removes the dust and renews the luster of woodwork floors, painted floors, linoleum and hardwood. It can also be used very effectively for removing dust from tops of doors, woodwork, molding, &c. Any surface on which this mop is used is brightened, made more attractive, and life prolonged.

The Triangle Mop is made of soft material of short length and is more useful, affords more satisfaction and lasts longer than any we have ever seen. Both the oil treated and the chemically treated can be washed without injury. The chemical mop needs no renewing, as washing has no effect upon its dust-absorbing quality.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

BANK THIEF DIES.

ter Morton, Who Stole $6,000 Succumbs to Wound's Effects.

Webster Morton, negro, twenty-five years old, who fled from Washington with $6,000 in cash, which he had stolen from the Washington and Southern Bank, where he had been employed as messenger, died in the City Hospital, Richmond, Va., last night from the bullet wound inflicted when he was captured by Detective Sergt. Kellam.

Kellam trapped Morton in a house in Richmond, and when the negro drew a revolver, the detective opened fire, inflicting the wound which caused his death. Twelve hours after Morton stole the money he was arrested in Richmond by Kellam and Detective Wiley.

While the two detectives and negro stood on a corner waiting for a patrol wagon, Morton suddenly turned, struck Wiley, and knocked him down, and escaped under a revolver fire from Kellam. In his flight the negro dropped a satchel, which contained all the stolen money.

It was not until several days later that Kellam trapped the negro in a house and shot him.

Shot His Assistant.

Mineral, Va., Jan. 10.—R. C. Sorrel, a saw mill man of Spottsylvania county, and Lucius Waldrop, of Mineral, became involved in a controversy over something which had been said, when Sorrel struck Waldrop with great force. Waldrop receded and warned his assailant not to advance upon him. Nevertheless Sorrell did advance and Waldrop fired two shots in quick succession from a 38-calibre revolver, the first ball entering Sorrell's left breast just below the heart, penetrating the body and lodging just under the skin in the back, and the second ball striking the collarbone, where it glanced upwards and lodged in the thick part of the neck.

Compelled to Support Families.

Richmond's probation officers are now collecting at the rate of about $6,000 the year from habitual drunkards who fail to support their families, according to the report of J. W. Wheaton and B. E. Poiteaux, made to the State Board of Charities and Corrections. This money all goes to the families of the men, who are kept to time by visions of hard labor on hte roads unless they turn their earnings over to the officers.

During the first year of Officer Poiteaux's service, he collected about $2,500, and during the second year about $4,000. The scope of the work is growing constantly.

Under the terms of the law relating to probation officers, as amended by the bill offered by John Orr Daniel in the last legislature, it is extended to apply to any city in Virginia with more than 15,000 inhabitants. It becomes the duty of the chief of police of all such cities, or of the probation officer, if there is one, whenever he finds a confirmed drunkard or a man who does not support his family, to deliver first an admonition. If this is not effective, the officer must bring the person before the court. The judge may continue the case and admit the accused to jail, putting him under the supervision of the probation officer, whose duty it is to examine the facts, including antecedents history and environment of the man, and exercise constant supervision over him, using every effort to encourage and stimulate him to reformation. Whenever the probation rules are violated, the accused may be arrested without a warrant and brought again before the court to be sent to work on the public roads where he is left until he agrees to support his family, when he comes back under probation. Drunkards are kept on the roads until they satisfy the sergeant of the camp and the superintendent that they have reformed, when they are sent back to the care of the probation officer.

According to the above Alexandria is empowered to take steps similar to those adopted in Richmond; hence the above should be of especial interest to certain men who are occasionally brought before the Police Court to answer the charge of neglecting their families.

Tokio, Jan. 10.—It was conceded today that the Premier Prince Katsura had insured the permanency of the newly formed cabinet by abandoning for the time at least, the project to increase the Japanese army.

FIGHT WITH MOONSHINERS.

Officers Unmercifully Beaten And Handcuffed.

Winston Salem, N. C., Jan. 10.—After destroying a blockade distillery, and arresting one man, Mack Todd, in a cave in the mountains of Surry county, Sheriff Davis and Deputy Marshal S. K. Harkrader were en route to Dobson all Tuesday night when they were held up and attacked in the dark by a dozen men, friends of Todd. A pitched battle followed, pistols, rocks and sticks being used. Sheriff Davis and Deputy Marshal Harkrader were knocked off their horses. The sheriff also lost two front teeth, being hit in the mouth with a rock. The deputy marshal was kicked and horribly beaten, his assaulters leaving him in an unconscious state. His recovery is doubtful.

The prisoner was released from his handcuffs, which were then placed on Harkrader. Handcuffed together, the sheriff and deputy marshal were told to go to Dobson. After they had gone some distance, Harkrader was able to travel no longer. They unlocked the handcuffs with the key given him by one of the assailants. Harkrader was taken to the home of Emmet Isaacs, where he is under the care of a physician. Deputy Sheriff R. B. Schuyler and Special Officer Warden Hayes, who assisted in the destruction of the distillery, made their escape during the pitched battle. Several revenue and other officers are in the section where the trouble occurred looking for the guilty persons. Another battle is anticipated.

TO SERVE TEN YEARS.

Joseph Smith, Who Shot His Bride in Jealous Rage, Convicted.

Gloucester, Va., Jan. 10.—The jury which heard the testimony in the case of Joseph Smith, charged with the murder of his 17-year-old wife, returned a verdict of guilty yesterday morning, and fixed his punishment at 10 years in the State penitentiary. The prisoner sat unmoved when Clerk A. T. Wiatt read the verdict and polled the jury, each of the 12 men answering in the affirmative.

Judge Jones, who presided at the trial, warned the spectators in the crowded courtroom against any demonstration when the verdict was read.

The crime was committed last September, after Smith and his bride of a few weeks had returned to their home from Norfolk, where they had been on an excursion. En route home on the steamer Mrs. Smith is said to have carried on a conversation with several young men, which aroused the jealousy and anger of Smith, who fired a bullet into his wife's brain.

Major J. N. Stubbs, counsel for the prisoner, will enter a motion for a new trial.

Willard's Narrow Escape.

New York, Jan. 10.—Captain Joseph E. Willard, of Richmond, former lieutenant-governor of Virginia, and his wife had a narrow escape from serious injury shortly after midnight yesterday morning, when a taxicab in which they were riding was wrecked in collision with a large touring car on Fifty-fifth street.

Captain Willard was badly cut and bruised when extricated from the wreckage, and Mrs. Willard was shaken up, but both were able to return to their room at the Hotel Gorham.

Witnesses regarded it as a narrow escape for the couple.

SUICIDE IN A HOTEL.

W. M. Daily Found With a Bullet Wound In His Head.

Richmod, Va., Jan. 10—Having missed him since noon the day before, employes of the Jefferson Hotel broke open the door of the room of W. M. Daily, 65 years old, at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night, and found him lying dead on the floor with a bullet wound in his right temple. He was near his bed partly dressed, and had evidently taken every precaution to see that his death was sure.

A revolver was found near his right hand. It contained three empty cartridges and three empty shells. Only one wound had been inflicted, and, as in another case of recent occurrence in a hotel, it is supposed that Daily fired one cartridge to see whether the pistol worked properly.

The bullet had evidently passed in to the brain, and death must have been instantaneous.

Two letters were found on the bureau, one addressed to Walter S. McNeil, a lawyer, and a professor at Richmond College, attorney for the dead man's son, and another to Charles Haldine, his own lawyer, addressed to 60, Broadway, New York.

The letter to the local attarney was sealed, and the letter to the New York lawyer was both stamped and sealed.

Coroner Taylor, who was notified of the suicide, forebore to open either letter and each went to its proper destination. Mr. McNeil refused to divulge the contents of the letter addressed to him, except to say that Mr. Daily stated that he was a Mason and requested a modest funeral.

Mr. McNeill immediately attempted to get into communication with the suicide's son, and stated that he was on his way here from Greenville, Tenn.

Mr. Daily registered at the hotel last October, and had been a constant guest there ever since. He was accustomed to take walks every day, and seemed to the clerks to be of a cheerful disposition. He registered from New York but was a Virginian by birth, and was reared in a home on the James River. He was a man of means and his bill was said to have been paid up to date.

It is supposed that Daily ended his life sometime Tuesday afternoon. He was seen about midday, when he came down and left key to his room on the clerk's desk. No one seems to remember seeing him after that. He did not appear Wednesday, nor during the day, and suspicion became aroused.

Late Chesapeake Disaster.

Newport News, Va., Jan. 10.—Because of the continued high winds yesterday, the British steamer, Indrakaula, which rammed and sank the Julia Luckenbach in Chesapeake Bay, was again delayed in her arrival here. The vessel has a big hole in her bow and considerable water in her hold, so that wrecking tugs did not believe it safe for her to attempt crossing the bay under storm conditions. She was moored off the mouth of the Rappahanock river today and much of her water logged cargo from the forward hold transferred to barges.

No plans will be made for the government's preliminary investigation of the collision between the Indrakaula and the Luckenbach until the Indrakaula arrives here.

TAFT'S BLUFF REGARDING MEXICO.

On the eve of President Taft's departure for the Panama Canal he bristled up with startling suddenness and apprised the country that patience had ceased to be a virtue, necessitating a drastic policy in dealing with the republic of Mexico. He let it be known that an ultimatum had been forwarded to President Madero, and owing to the pressing nature of the emergency no time was to be lost—the document having been transmitted by telegraph. The country was led to believe that immediate steps were to be taken for the protection of Americans and their property, as Mexico would not or could not do anything that would safeguard American interests.

Nearly two weeks have elapsed since the President's return and no action has been taken. American mining interests, evidently discouraged, have taken steps to get all women and children out of the zone of danger, and within a week all smelters in the Chihauhua district will be closed down. The situation has been going from bad to worse for so long a time that it is believed advisable to move the people at once, as there is no longer any hope of measures being adopted for their protection. With American property in ruins it may be the wieset course to save the Americans from possible slaughter while there is time. Madero cannot protect them, our own government procrastinates and the imperiled people must depend on the rule of self-preservation. A copy of the Mexican Herald just received by the Gazette shows an alarming condition of affairs.

In less than two months we will have a new President, and it may be that President Taft intends to leave the Mexican situation as a legacy to his successor. Two months is a long time to wait for those whose lives are in danger. However, it is believed that no time will be wasted after Mr. Wilson reaches the White House. The folds of the American flag will be unfurled for the benefit of American citizens who see their property being destroyed and who are compelled to take flight lest they meet a like fate. After March 4 the people will expect something more than mere flashes.

A PYTHIAN HERO.

On March 14 last a Pythian hero met death unflinchingly and died in the full performance of his duty, and while the newspapers of the land gave the full particulars, lauded his life and praised his heroism, no Pythian publication that has come to the attention of the writer has called attention to his nightly act and exemplification to his knightly act and exemplification

On that date the whole country was shocked by the assassination of Judge Thornton L. Massie, of Pulaski, Va., a Knight of Pythias and a member of Pulaski Lodge, No. 92, of Virginia, who was shot while performing his duty at Hillsville, Va., and the most of the officers of his court killed or maimed by a lawless mountain gang, who at his hands were being halted by the stern arm of the law.

The feudists and lawless mountaineers of the South have long been a menace to civilization, a source of much concern and at the cost of many lives State and national authorities have long endeavored to quell them, but their desperate character made it difficult to convist them, and the Governor of Virginia, knowing the unswerving sense of justice and integrity of his former classmate, Thornton L. Massie, then a practicing lawyer of Pulaski, Va., asked him to accept the judgeship of a mountain district, in order that law should reign instead of lawlessness.

Judge Massie accepted, although he was giving up a practice of $6,000 per year for a salary of $2,500 per annum and meagre traveling expenses,but he did so in an attempt to curb the lawlessness of the mountaineers and make the mountain region as safe and law-abiding as any portion of fair Virginia.

Judge Massie understood this stupendous task from a full conception and sense of duty, as taught by our Pythian Order, which should be proud of the inspiration it gave him and pay just tribute to his memory. His sacrifice was the greater that he had a happy home, with a charming wife to make it indeed, a home, a lovely daughter, just on the threshold of womanhood, and two young sons, who were to be equipped for the battle of life.

Before the fatal day Judge Massie had been warned of threats against him and his officers if the members of the gang on trial were found guilty, and advised to go armed, but his reply was worthy of the true Pythian knight that he was; "Only the law is supreme, and it must be unfraid; no lawlessness can make it afraid. No man would be fit to sit on the bench of Virginia or any other State in this land who carried a deadly weapon to the task of administering justice. When a judge must ascend the bench with his hand gripping a pistol, the day of law is past. Civilization is a failure." Thus, as was said by another, "Armed only with his faith in the law, he walked into the jaws of death like a knight of the Grail," and we add, like the true Knight of Pythias that he was.

We seek our inspiration from the example af Damon in forsaking his family to go to the certain death that had been decreed him, and shall we be less inspired by the example of Judge Massie over whom no shadow hovered in leaving his happy home in the vale of sunshine, where the cheer of wife, daughter and sons was ever around him, in order to remove the blot of lawlessness from the fair escutcheon of "Old Virginia," and in the spirit of holy sacrifice say with his last gasp ing breath; "I could not have done less"?

iesdingnipgshr mht mh tmh tmhtmht

High as the topmost line on the scroll of fame let the name of Thornton L. Massie, the Pythian hero, be engraved, that those faltering and recreant in their duty may be inspired to renewed courage and effort and to perform their duties with faith and fearlessness never known before. Let every public official be inspired to follow his example of fearlessness and devotion, and our present unrest and distrust will be stilled and with confidence, thust restored our nation will be restored to peace and march and on to greatness with a stride that knows no deviation, with wrong doing so far subjugated that the public officials will be trusted as men were never trusted before.

Judge Massie and his family are unknown to the writer except by the circumstances of his deateh, but he wished to pay his tribute to his memory, while offering them such consolation as words can convey in their irreparable loss. Great sacrifices are often the only means of arousing people to a sense of their duties, and so Judge Massie did not in vain,for not only has his tragic death opened the mountain fastness of the moonshiner and feudist to the light and restraints of civilization and the reign of law,but thousands now and for all time to come will be made better and stronger and kept in the path of righteousness by his life and death, n its full exemplification of conscientious devotion to duty—Judge Franklin L. Ferris, of Sioux City, Iowa, in the Pythian Advocate.

AIN'T IT FINE TODAY!

Sure, this world is full of trouble—
I ain't said it ain't.
Lord! I've had enough, and double,
Reasons for complaint.
Rain and storm have come to fret me
Skies were often gray;
Thorns an' brambles have beset me
On the road—but say,
Ain't it fine today!

What's the use of always weepin',
Makin' trouble last?
What's the use of always keepin'
Thinkin' of the past?
Each must have his tribulation,
Water with his wine.
Life, it ain't no celebration,
Trouble? I've had mine—
But today is fine!

It's today that I am livin'
Not a month ago;
Havin,' losin', takin,' givin,'
As time wills it so.
Yesterday a cloud of sorrow
Fell across the way;
It may rain again tomorrow,
It may rain—but say,
Ain't it fine today!

BRYAN AND THE CABINET.

Commoner Says Such Positions Should Not be Currency to Pay Debts.

Lincoln, Neb. Jan. 10.—Political gossip linking his name with a cabinet position, on the score that President-elect Wilso nis personally obligated or indebted to make any such appointment, is discredited by William J. Bryan in a first page editoral in his Commoner which says in part:

"Cabinet positions ought not to be regarded as currency with which to pay debts. They are responsible positions and in filling them the president-elect should look to the future and not to the past. A public official has no right to discharge political obligations at the expense of the public. The men selected by Mr. Wilson for the cabinet should be selected, not because of personal service rendered him, nor even because of past services rendered the party. The individual counts for little; the cause counts for much. An individual if he had a proper motive for working, finds sufficient compensation in the triumph of ideas, principles and policies; he does not need the consultations of office. Offices should be used to strengthen the party and to advance the things for which the party stands. It is pleasant to reward those who have been faithful, where that reward can be given without sacrificing public interests, but where past service is considered, it is better to consider it as an assurance of future service than merely because it has been rendered.

"The Commoner declines to discuss cabinent possibilities, but it ventures to express the hope that Governor Wilson will be governed by a higher motive than gratitude in the selection of his official household. In other words, the welfare of the party and the welfare of the country, not the ambitions of men or the interests of individuals should be considered."

GREEN VEGETABLES SCARCE.

Fruits Plentiful But Meats Higher.

The market for green vegetables is not so well supplied with green stuff as it was during several weeks past. The early shipments of southern grown vegetables have not yet commenced to make an impression on the market, and it will take several weeks before a good supply of winter grown vegetables will be on sale. There is plenty of celery and some lettuce also some kale and greens, a few spring onions are to be seen bringing 5 cents for two small bunches. In fact there is a limited supply of most vegetables and while the prices are reasonable, it is expected that a shortage in most of the perishable green's will be evident, until southern grown stuff come in more freely.

Buyers of fresh pork and beef will find that prices have advanced about 5 cents a pound, over the prices that prevailed last week. Good lean pork is very scarce on account of the great demand in Washington and the high prices that prevail in that city.

Veal is one of the meats that dealers here find very scarce local dealers being compelled to pay farmers 12 cents a pound for live calves and at that cannot get enough to supply the demand. Of fine beef there is a good supply and of the very best quality, Sausage, smoked and salted meats are about the same in price as previously quoted. There is a good supply of spring chickens and hens on the market and of country butter and eggs while the demand is good the supply is also fairly good, butter having dropped to 35 cents for the best creamery and eggs being sold at from 23 to 25 cents.

Strawberries are coming in to the Washington market but few are seen in this city though the southern grown fruits and especially Virginia apples are plentiful just now.

DAINTIES FOR SUPPER

FOUR DELICIOUS SWEET DISHES AND AN OMELET.

Soft Molasses Cake May Be Recommended—Sour Milk Fritters—New and Nourishing Style of Omelet—Jelly Cake.

Soft Molasses Cake.—One cup molasses, one-half cup sugar, teaspoon cinnamon, one-half teaspoon ginger, one-half teaspoon cloves, one-half cup butter, two and one-half cups flour, two teaspoons soda, dissolved in one cup of boiling water, two well-beaten eggs.

Sour Milk Fritters.—To one pint of good sour milk add two teaspoons of soda; beat until foamy, then add one tablespoon of sugar, one teaspoon salt and flour to make it like griddle cake batter, then add one egg and fry in hot spider in hot fat. These would melt in your mouth.

Nourishing Omelet. — Dissolve a tablespoon of beef extract in one-half cup of hot water and stir into it one-half cup of the crusts of whole wheat bread, finely rolled. Let them stand over hot water and soak while you beat the yolks and whites of two eggs. Stir the crumbs into the yolks, add a bit of pepper and salt, then very lightly stir in the whites. Cook as any omelet, fold and serve on a hot dish. Garnish with parsley.

Lemon Jelly Cake.—Two cups sugar, one-half cup butter, creamed Add one cup sweet milk, three cups flour, one teaspoon cream tartar, one half teaspoon soda and three eggs well beaten. Bake in five thin layers

Jelly for Cake.—Grate rinds of two lemons, add juice of lemons, one cup sugar, one beaten egg, one-half cup water, one teaspoon butter, one tablespoon flour mixed with a little water. Boil till it thickens.

Save-All Pudding.—Place a quarter of a pound of stale bread in a basin and cover with a pint of boiling milk Let the bread soak till soft, then beat it up with a fork. While beating add two eggs, two ounces of finely chopped suet, an ounce of dripping, two tablespoonfuls of washed and picked currants, two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar, and a quarter of a nutmeg grated. Two apples pared, cored and quartered should be added, and the mixture poured into a greased dish and baked one hour.

Mock Turtle Soup.

Take half a calf's head, fresh and unstripped of skin, remove the brains, and clean the head carefully in hot water, leaving it in cold water for an hour. Then put it into six quarts of warm water, with two pounds of veal, same of pork, a roasted onion stuck with cloves, rind of lemon, two sliced carrots, bunch of herbs and a head of celery. Let it boil slowly two hours; then take out the head and pork. Make forcemeat balls of the brains and tongue, break the bones of the head, put all into the soup and boil two hours more. Put into a small stewpan a piece of butter, onions sliced thin, with parsley, thyme, mace and allspice. Add flour to thicken and stir into the soup slowly. Boil gently one hour more, pass through a sieve, season with salt, cayenne, lemon juice and a pint of Madeira wine. Add mushrooms if desired and serve with lemons cut in quarters.

Slow Cooking Best.

In these days of quick living, it is well to remember that, in cooking, only a slow and even tedious process can bring about the best results, for gradually cooked food is at once more palatable and digestible than the rapidly cooked kind.

It cannot be too often impressed upon a cook that slow methods soften the connective tissue of meats, develop their flavors, and render their consistency more agreeable.

Milk that is baked for long hours in a slow oven is of a high nutritive value, and all milk puddings, more especially barley pudding, that are to be served at luncheon should be prepared for cooking directly after the breakfast cookery pans have been cleared away.

Lemon Jelly Cake.

One cup sugar, one scant half cup of butter, two-thirds of a cup of cold water, one egg, two cups flour, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Bake in layers and fill with lemon filling.

TURKEY BAKED WITH MILK

Recipe of French Chef Declared to Be the Finest Method of Cooking the Bird.

The following recipe has been handed down in our family for five generations. A noted French chef, when in Edinburgh, Scotland, was prevailed upon by some of the wealthy families to give their daughters a series of cooking lessons, writes a correspondent of the New York Press. The most delicious of all the recipes was for turkey baked in milk. It was brought to this country by them and has been used ever since by all the offshoots of our family. I have never seen it anywhere excepting in families who have eaten it at our table.

Make a stuffing of one-third potatoes finely mashed and seasoned, two-thirds bread crumbs, one cupful of raisins or one and a half cupfuls if turkey is large, one-half cupful of butter, about one-half cupful of sugar, cinnamon, salt and pepper to taste, and last, two well beaten eggs stirred in lightly.

When the turkey is properly prepared and stuffed with this mixture, heat a pint of new milk and put in the dripping pan with the turkey and bake, basting every 15 minutes with the milk. Keep milk in the top of the stove to replenish the supply in the pan as needed. It will take from one to two quarts of milk.

When done remove the turkey and set the pan on top of the stove to boil a minute. The gravy will then have a curdled appearance, and is the most delicious gravy ever tasted. If the cooking has not been just right, and the gravy does not thicken, add a little cornstarch and boil.

SEWING MACHINE NEEDS CARE

Much Trouble May Be Avoided If the Simple Precautions Recommended Here Are Taken.

The best way to finish off a machine seam is to turn the material and stitch back for an inch. This does away with the necessity of tying the thread, which, if forgotten, often causes trouble in the finished article

Sewing machines should be treated with great care if you would have them last a long while and do perfect work. After every two days of steady work oil the machinery thoroughly, but be careful to wipe away all superfluous oil. Run the machine rapidly but steadily, without any thread, for five minutes after oiling. This will cause the oil to scatter and the superfluous drops can be wiped away and none will be left to stain the material you are working with.

When much machine work is to be done, fill several shuttles with cotton finer than that used on top. An ordinary shuttle will hold a great deal of fine cotton and you will not be annoyed by having to stop and wind a bobbin when you are right in the midst of a long seam or a difficult bit of work.

Quilt Protector.

Procure the best quality white or cream cheesecloth, about two and one-quarter yards. On one side put a three-inch hem, stitching it neatly. In the center of this, just above the hem, embroider a monogram or one large initial. This is to be folded over the top of quilt or comfort and sewed on to protect it, as this is where they always show soil first, says Harper's Bazar. The hem on the under side may be small and hemstitched or plain hemmed. The ends should be hemmed. Lawn may be used instead of cheesecloth.

Novel Shoe Case.

A woman who is hard on her silk stockings has learned to utilize the tops for bags for her shoes and slippers. When the runs and holes get undarnable the tops of the stockings are cut off midway of the leg and the lower edge sewed across in a French seam.

A shoe is kept in each of these stocking bags, which take up no room, cost nothing and act as an absorber of dust. Sometimes the kind of shoes is outlined on the hem to make them more easily distinguishable.

Johnny Cake.

One cupful of sour milk, one cupful corn meal, two cupfuls of flour, one teaspoonful each of salt and soda and one tablespoonful of sugar will be needed for this recipe. Mix soft and bake 20 minutes in hot oven.

Breakfast In a Good, Warm Room

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

A "warm" breakfast—the kind that sends you out ready braced for a good day's work—should be eaten in a warm room.

You lose half the good of the meal if you are shivering in discomfort while you eat it.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater makes breakfast a cosy meal for the whole family.

No smoke or smell with a Perfection. Easily cleaned. Easily moved from room to room. An ornament anywhere; a luxury in the bedroom; a necessity in the sewing-room or the bathroom.

Dealers everywhere; or write for descriptive circular.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Washington, January 10.—Senator Martin of Virginia, has introduced a resolution in the Senate, authorizing the Librarian of Congress to return to the Williamsburg Lodge No. 6, A. F. & A. M. of Virginia, the original manuscript of the record of the proceedings of this lodge which is contained in one bound volume now in the Library of Congress. This manuscript was taken from the files of the Williamsburg Lodge during the civil war by some party or parties unknown and the members of the lodge are desirous of having them returned.

Representative Carlin today introduced a bill in the House apropriating $20,000 for the purpose of reclaiming land at the government reservation at Arlington. The land which Mr. Carlin wishes reclaimed is adjacent to the Agricultural Experimental Farm.

Mr. Carlin also introduced a bill directing the chief of Army Engineers to have a survey made of Occoquan Creek for the purpose of ascertainnig what funds are necessary to secure a deep channel there so as to make it navigable.

Representative Slemp, of Virginia, is a candidate for membership on the Ways and Means committee of the House during the next Congress. Mr Slemp thinks that he is entitled to membership on this important committee, in view of his being one of the only two republican representatives who will be members of next House from States immediately bordering on the Atlantic Ocean south of New York.

Action on the Jones bill, providing for the independence of the Phillippines, and the resolution inviting the powers of the world to enter into a pact for the neutralization of the archipelago will be postponed by the democrats until after March 4, when both houses of Congress and the Presidency will be controlled by the party. Assurances have been given by President-elect Wilson that in one of his messages to Congress he will recommend the passage of both bill and resolution. A decision to postpone action on the Phillipine measures was decided at a meeting of the House Committee on Insular Affairs held Wednesday. As President Taft had given notice that he would veto either measure if submitted to him for approval, the Democrats concluded that it would be a waste of time to act at this session.

William Rockefeller, the elusive Standard Oil magnate, will be examined by a physician for the Money Trust Committee, probably at Miami upon his return from the Bahamas Chairman Pujo announced today that the committee's specialist would leave here today, and it was assured that the committee had word of Rockefeller's intention to return within a few days to the United States.

A Virginia farmer drew the honor of sending the first "livestick" shipment by parcels post today. The "livestock" was a mouse, consigned to a friend's cat in this city. Pussy demolished the pasteboard cage in which the rodent was sent and found the occupant very much alive.

The real voting which will make Woodrow Wilson president on March 4th—that of the electoral college—will take place throughout the country Monday. The electors will meet at the capitals of 48 states informally to cast ballots for presidents and vice president.

A grou pof attractive Dianas—women famous for their horsemanship—will have a prominent place in the big woman's suffrage parade on March 3. Miss Julia Goldsborough and Miss Mary Morgan, of Washington, both of whom have ridden blue ribbon winners in the numerous horse shows, will lead the contingent, and the committee here hopes to have such other famous riders as Miss Katherine Elkins, Miss Lucille Cherbonnier, Miss Janet Allen and others.

Anthony Hunt, the prominent Chicago clubman declared temporarily insane following his attempt to see President Taft last Sunday, was today removed to Garfield Hospital with a German masseur ,a special nurse, and a nerve specialist. One of his family will remain here with him. He will not be removed to his home in Chicago until his condition improves.

TO March on Washington.

New York, Jan. 10.—Following their first definite announcement of plans for a grand march on Washington next month, the suffragist leaders of Greater New York today began an enthusiastic campaign to raise the funds necessary to finance the project and to enlist a great army of their sisters.

WEEK'S HAPPENINGS IN FRATERNAL CIRCLES.

On Tuesday night one of the most interesting councils of the winter was held by Seminole Tribe No. 35, Improved Order of Red Men, in their council house in the Alexandria National Bank Building. The council was a special one called for the double purpose of receiving a fraternal visit from Past Great Sachem Max Levy, of Cincinati, Ohio, who is now serving his reservation in the capacity of Great Prophet, and the raising of the recently elected chiefs of the tribe which was done by Deputy Great Sachem Doctor Carrol H. May, of this city, assisted by Past Great Sachem Levy, of Ohio, and Nicklin, of this city and reservation.

During the course of the evening many long and short talks were delivered by the various chiefs in attendance, all of which were good, but that delivered by the visiting great chief from Ohio, deserves special mention, from the very fact that it bubbled over with the veritable nuggets of Redmanship, and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

Osceola Tribe No. 1, I. O. R. M., met in regular weekly council on Wednesday night, and transacted routine business.

Silver Moon Council No. 26 Degree of Pocahontas, assembled in Council in their tepee on Wednesday's sleep, and transacted many matters of business of importance to the council.

Fitzgerald Council, No. 459, Knights of Columbus, held a meeting Wednesday night in St. Mary's Hall and transacted considerable business of a routine nature.

Smythe, secretary; Charles H. Davis, financial secretary; H. Friedlander, treasurer; J. H. Bartlett, chaplain; T. U. Fairfax, usher; F. L. Plitt, sergeant; E. J. Thompson,doorkeeper; J. T. O'Meara, district deputy grand master Wednesday night installed the recently elected officers of Sarepta Lolge of Odd Fellows.

On Monday evening Oriental Court No. 10 held a regular monthly meeting at which time the degree team of this organization initiated thirty-five novices into the mysteries of the order. The recently elected officers of the court were also installed at this meeting. After adjournment a sumptuous banquet was served, about 50 partaking of the good things served.

At their next regular meeting on Wednesday night the 15th, Alva Aerie No. 871 Fraternal Order of Eagles, the installation of their recently elected officers will take place.

Alexandria-Washington Lodge No. 22, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, held a called communication in Masonic Temple on Tuesday night for work, and also a stated communication on last night, at which time a considerable volume of business was disposed of. Arrangements have already been made by this lodge of Masons for its annual banquet, which will be held February 22 at the Elk's Home. It will be attended by a large gathering of members of the craft, together with many of the grand masters who will be here on that occasion for the purpose of attending the annual meeting of the memorial association.

The memorial committee of Alexandria Washington Lodge of Masons, the object of which is the erection of a permanent temple in this city to Washington the Mason ,has organized with the election of these officers: James M. Duncan, chairman; Samuel W. Pitts, vice-chairman; Charles H. Callahan, secretary; Leopold Ruben, treasurer.

The next meeting of the memorial association, composed of grand masters of the various Masonic bodies throughout the United States, will assemble in this city February 21, next, when plans will be outlined for the work of beginning the erection of the temple, it is announced. The proposed memorial will cost several hundred thousand dollars, and a goodly sum already has been raised for that purpose.

Andrew Jackson Lodge No. 120, will hold a called communication in Masonic Temple on next Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock for work.

The incoming of a Democratic president brings its joys to many, but, as the bitter mingles with the sweet, so will the induction of President Wilson into office bring its sadness to others. But it matters not who is President we all need and have to get footwear—why not the best—which can always be found at Marshall's.
